Important Notes

1. Elevators are available but once you reach your section, you will have to take stairs to reach your row
(Except for wheelchair accessible seats where you can use elevator and then a ramp).
2. The Cleveland Cavaliers have a ticket program called Flash Seats. Flash Seats is an online ticket service. You will need to set up an account using the email address you provide us on the front page. You must set up your account in advance. Log onto <http://cavs.flashseats.com/> At the top middle of the page, click on Register and fill out the required information. After filling out the registration information, and we add the tickets to your account, your tickets will be loaded onto a card you provided to your account, either a credit card or a driver's license. This card is your entrance into the game. This card will not be charged. They will swipe your card upon entrance to Quicken Loans Arena. You may have the tickets on your mobile phone if you download the Flash Seats mobile app. Your tickets will be added to your Flash Seats account no later than December 30th, 2018.

3. Sign up Form is due Friday, October 19, 2018

4. Email address is required
